It is also guessable that we have survived until today by inventing throwing tools.

The Origins of a Modern Humans ~ Two Hypotheses ~

Multiregional evolution

Two hypotheses exist about the origins of Modern humans.

One is a multiregional evolution opinion. Primitive humans and Archaic humans could leave Africa, and it is the opinion about how we evolved into modern humans originally.

African origin opinion

The opinion which spread over all part though the Modern humans came from Africa and left Africa. Modern humans felt it was wide to all part while expelling Primitive human and Archaic human away. ??この文はちょっと分からない

Sociology is the international community. For example, it is whaling issue and the whaling issue is a large problem.

The whaling issue is an international controversy and friction problem of the catching of whales and dolphins. In the old days people had taken a whales. The purpose is for using whale oil. Whale oil was used as a fuel for streetlights. In 1948, the IWC (what is IWC?) was inaugurated and whaling nations participated. Now that we have oil, without using whale oil is the only country don't need whaling issue and came to oppose. ??この文はちっと分からない
Environmental protection is also an issue, and a country without the sea like Switzerland participated too. Norway continued commercial whaling while participating.
